Introductory

THIS little book contains information regarding th history, polity and workings of this Church ar Society from their organization to the present time, t gether with lists of members.

The Prudential Committee has been authorized c print such a record as often as once in three years f general convenience and information. It may also ser a higher purpose. It will enable officers and membe to review the covenants they took when they assum their places in God's house, or welcomed others into f lowship. The membership list may be of value in t way of promoting Christian acquaintance. Possibly al the study of our polity and methods may be helpful places where churches are weak because they are t numerous, and where the great interests of Christ's kin dom cry out for consolidation.

The record of these first memorable years of o history ought surely to impress this congregation wi a glad and solemn sense of God's favor toward u and with a stimulating apprehension of that spiritu service which He has a right to expect from those wh He has so thoroughly equipped.

In behalf of the Committee,

JOHN P. HALE,

Historical

THE KENWOOD EVANGELICAL CHURCH was organized November 17th, 1885. The spring previous Mr. Thomas G. Otis had built upon his property at the junction of Lake and Woodlawn avenues, near Forty-fifth street, a small frame building to be used as a Sunday School for the accommodation of the children of the neighborhood. The response to his invitation so far exceeded the expectation that, before the summer was over, the building was found to be inadequate for its purpose, and was enlarged to more than double its first capacity. On Sunday evenings preaching services were regularly held from the first, and received a cordial and increasing support. Just before this, a great tide of population from the older parts of Chicago had set in this direction, and was working rapid changes in the neighborhood. All things pointed to the increasing importance and the permanence of the work which had been begun at the chapel.

On the evening of the 5th of September, accordingly, a meeting of gentlemen was held at the house of Mr. H. W. Fowler to take first steps toward the organization of a Church in connection with the chapel enterprise. A grave problem presented itself at the outset, in the determination of its denominational connection. The chapel had brought into harmonious co-operation the members of various churches. It was not at all likely they would all unite cordially and permanently under any one denominational form. At the same time, it was recognized that one strong Church could serve the cause of Christ in this neighborhood better than several small ones. The formation of an undenominational Church was therefore strongly advocated,—one which should represent the evangelical faith and spirit of this community. It was urged that such a Church would be scriptural in its conception, and that it was providentially indicated by the circumstances of the case.

This view prevailed. A committee appointed to ascertain what support could be secured for the undertaking, soon reported that they had received subscriptions sufficient for the first year. A society was therefore organized under the laws of the State to provide for the financial necessities of the proposed Church in time to come. Soon after, a council of ministers, mostly from neighboring Churches, was invited to meet in the chapel for the purpose of organization. The council met the 17th of November, and thirty-nine persons were banded together as a Church of the Lord Jesus.

Four deacons and a clerk were chosen as officers for the first year. Meantime, a permanent constitution was devised and embodied in Articles of Government. These were compiled by Mr. N. S. Bouton and adopted by the Church, December 16th, 1885. They have been recently expanded, to express more fully our principles and working methods.

The Rev. John P. Hale was invited to the pastorate of the Church, April 5th, 1886, and entered upon the duties of his office the first Sunday in June following. He was formally installed, September 30th, by a council of ministers and delegates from Churches of various denominations.

In the fall of 1886 plans for the permanent benevolent work of the Church were matured and set in operation. The Sunday School and Ladies Society became part of the Church organization, a full list of Church officers was elected, and a schedule of benevolences adopted with monthly offerings. The agencies to which the Church contributed were the following: The American Board of Foreign Missions, the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions (two annual offerings each), the Freedmen's Aid Society of the M. E. Church, City Evangelization, the American Sunday School Union, our own Sunday School, and the Deacons' Fund for relief and expense. To this list the Chicago Newsboys' Home has recently been added.

Down to the present time the music in both Church and Sunday School has been in the charge of Mr. M. W. Atwood, precentor, and Mrs. H. W. Fowler, organist, the latter assisted by Mrs. A. W. Hoyt. At the last annual meeting of the Society it was decided that a considerable appropriation be made for music, and that it be put in charge of a committee of three to be elected annually, one by the Prudential Committee, one by the Board of Trustees, and one by the Society; the latter to be neither a member of the Committee nor of the Board.

The Kenwood Evangelical Church Society was organized September 19th, 1885. For the first three years the current expense was met by voluntary subscriptions. In the fall of 1886 it became apparent from the increasing attendance at the morning service and at the Sunday School, that the erection of a permanent house of worship could not long be delayed. On the 19th of November a committee was appointed to canvass the matter, who reported at the annual meeting, a month later, that they deemed it feasible to erect a building free from debt which should cost at least forty thousand dollars. They recommended the lot on the southwest corner of Greenwood avenue and Forty-sixth street as the site for the Church. It was voted to proceed at once with the undertaking. Messrs. N. S. Bouton, D. O. Strong, H. W. Fowler, H. B. Bogue, M. W. Atwood, and the Pastor were appointed a Building Committee to act with Messrs. J. B. Knight, C. B. Bouton, T. G. Otis, E. F. Bayley, J. N. Steele, M. A. Farr and Julius Steele, the Trustees.

So liberal was the response to the call for subscriptions that it was considered prudent to adopt plans which contemplated a greater expense than was at first proposed. The plans accepted were those drawn by Mr. W. W. Boynton and Mr. H. B. Wheelock, who were associated architects. The ground was broken in August, 1887, and the corner-stone laid with appropriate ceremonies on the 26th of November. By the first of June, 1888, the chapel portion was ready for occupancy, and the first services in the new building were held on the third anniversary of the Sunday School. The entire building was completed and dedicated to the worship and service of God on the 18th of November, the day following the third anniversary of the formation of the Church.

The entire cost of the Church and furnishings is $65,423.92. This includes the lot (presented by Mr. N. S. Bouton) at a valuation of $6,000.00; the building, with heating apparatus, costing $49,751.86; the organ and motor costing $3,650.00; and furnishings, which include pews and chairs, carpets, cushions, mantels, gas fixtures, etc., costing $6,022.06; of this latter amount, $2,379.83 was contributed by the Ladies Society and the Sunday School. The only indebtedness upon the property is $20,000.00, for which amount bonds were issued by the Society, bearing six per cent. interest, and were taken at par value by members and friends of the Church.

The following list will give the names of those who have served as officers of the Church and Society, with their terms of service:

DEACONS FOR THE FIRST YEAR: Nathaniel S. Bouton, Thomas G. Otis, Hervey W. Fowler and Myron W. Atwood.

ELDERS: Nathaniel S. Bouton, '86-90; Thomas G. Otis, '86-9; Hervey W. Fowler, '86-8 and '88-92; Dr. Alfred L. Hoyt, '86-7 and '87-91.

DEACONS: Myron W. Atwood, '86-8 and '88-90 Tappen Halsey, '86-7 and '87-9; George H. Bliss, '88-91.

SUNDAY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENTS (elected each year): George H. Bliss, '85-8; James N. Steele, '88-9.

CLERK AND TREASURER (elected each year): Albert M. Graves, '85-9.

TRUSTEES OF THE SOCIETY: John M. Hamilton, '85-6; John B. Knight, '85-6, '86-8, '88-91; Robert Strahorn, '85-6; Thomas G. Otis, '85-6, '86-8; David O. Strong, '85-6; Nathaniel S. Bouton, '85-6; James N. Steele, '85-6, '86-7, '87-9; Christopher B. Bouton, '86-8, '88-91; Edwin F. Bayley, '86-7, '87-9; Marvin A. Farr, '86-7, '87-9; Julius Steele, '86-7, '87-9; Frank E. Spooner, '88-91.

TREASURER: John E. Cowles, '85-6; Julius Steele, '86-9.

CLERK OF THE SOCIETY: James N. Steele, '86-8; Charles Loughridge, '88-9. The Treasurer is elected by the Trustees, the Clerk by the Society, both annually.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL was organized as the Lakeside Sunday School, May 31st, 1885; the first regular session of the school being held the following Sunday, June 7th, with an attendance of 123 persons. The increase in membership and the offerings of the school for each year since, appears in the statistical tables. In August the name was changed to the Kenwood Sunday School and so remained until September, 1886, when upon invitation of the Church, the school accepted its guardianship and control. Mr. L. Everingham was the first Superintendent. But removing from the vicinity in the fall, he was succeeded by Mr. George H. Bliss, who has had charge of the school until the present time. For imperative reasons he resigns his office at the close of this year. With the new year Mr. James N. Steele becomes Superintendent, and the time of meeting is changed from three o'clock to the noon hour.

The tone of the school has been excellent. An earnest and cheerful spirit has pervaded all departments and made itself felt upon teachers and scholars alike. Under the management of Mrs. Bliss, the primary department has been a notable feature of the school, and has reached an average attendance upon fair days of over one hundred of the little ones.

THE LADIES SOCIETY was formed to provide for the necessities of the Sunday School. The little chapel needed furniture and the school lacked its proper equipment, while neither Church nor Society existed to furnish these requirements. The ladies therefore resolved to take these matters in hand, and in July organized a society for that purpose. Under the leadership of Mrs. D. O. Strong, Mrs. L. D. Condee, Mrs. A. L. Mills and Mrs. H. W. Fowler, the society prosecuted its work with such vigor and success that by the close of the winter the needs of the school had been supplied and the ladies had still some money in hand.

Meanwhile the Church had been established. Consequently, the Society at the opening of the second year was organized with a view to the various benevolent and missionary causes which the new condition of things presented. The ladies decided that the work should all be conducted by one organization, acting through committees. It was hoped that in this way separate interests would not clash nor come into ungenerous rivalry. Each committee works independently under its own director, but all the directors meet as members of the Executive Committee, and together plan out the work of the whole Society. Thus all its agencies are recognized as parts of one whole. Ladies co-operate with as many committees as they desire, but all hear the reports and appeals made to the Society from every department of its work. The plan has worked admirably.

For two years Mrs. Robert Hill presided over the Society, and was succeeded by Mrs. H. W. Fowler. Most of the sewing done at the bi-monthly meetings has been for the Half-Orphan Asylum and the Old Ladies' Home.

THE GOOD WILL MISSION BAND was organized at the suggestion of the mission committees of the Ladies Society, in January, 1887, to interest and engage the children in missionary work. The studies the first year were upon home mission fields principally, conducted by Mrs. A. W. Hoyt. A box was made up and sent to the Good-Will Mission in Dakota, from which the Band took its name. The second year foreign missions engaged the attention of the children, under the leadership of Mrs. G. H. Bliss. The attendance averaged 100, besides visitors. The older members held special meetings at the house of the leader where they worked for home missions. Miss Hattie Bouton leads the Band this year. The children thus far have been helping the Bohemian Mission in this city, in which they have become deeply interested.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY was formed in November, 1886, at the suggestion of the pastor, for the improvement of the minds and hearts of the younger members of the congregation. Weekly meetings were held, those of a religious character alternating with others of a social or a literary sort. Five of the 28 members came into the Church during the year. The second year the devotional meetings were held Sunday evenings, and Bible studies were conducted by the pastor on alternate Tuesdays; social or literary meetings being held monthly. Mr. C. M. Trowbridge was chosen as president in 1887, and was succeeded by Mr. W. R. Colcord. Increased interest has been shown in the devotional meetings, which have been of great value in developing the religious life and activity of the young people. The general plan and method of operation is much like that of the Society of Christian Endeavor.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS are banded together for all good work in their own neighborhood and among the needy. Every member belongs to one or more of the committees, called Tens, each of which undertakes some particular service—either to read or sing to the sick and aged, to carry flowers to the hospitals, to promote temperance, or personal piety, or to do some thing which shall teach themselves and others to look up, not down; look forward, not back; and to lend a hand, IN HIS NAME.

Articles of Government

ARTICLE I.—DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

This Church was organized for the worship of God and the advancement of His kingdom. We acknowledge the Lord Jesus Christ as the Great Head of the Church, and receive the Holy Scriptures as authoritative in matters of faith, order and discipline. We believe that Christ's Church is one, and pray for the realization of its unity through all the earth. Recognizing the minor differences which exist among believers as being consistent with Christian integrity, we have united as a Church of Jesus Christ, upon the great essentials of the evangelical faith.

ARTICLE II.—GOVERNMENT.

SECTION 1. The government of this Church is vested in the body of believers who compose it and are in fellowship, whose majority vote is final.

SEC. 2. While this Church, in the conduct of its affairs, is governed by its own understanding of God's Word, it gladly recognizes the obligations and privilege of the fellowship of Churches, and will seek to promote it by counsel, co-operation and sympathy.

ARTICLE III.—OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. The officers of this Church shall consist of a Pastor, four Elders, not less than three Deacons, a Clerk and Treasurer in one person, and the Superintendent of the Sunday-schools. These shall constitute the Prudential Committee.

SEC. 2. Officers shall be chosen by ballot; a majority of all the votes cast being necessary to a choice. The Sunday-schools shall elect their own Superintendents, subject to confirmation by the Church.

SEC. 3. Elders shall be chosen for the term of four years, deacons for the term of three years, the clerk for the term of one year. They shall serve the appointed time and until their successors are elected and qualified. Vacancies may be filled at any regularly called business meeting.

SEC. 4. Elders and deacons shall be divided into four and three classes respectively, so arranged that one class shall retire annually. After the year 1890, these officers, upon the expiration of a full term of service, shall be ineligible to an immediate re-election.

ARTICLE IV.—DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. THE PRUDENTIAL COMMITTEE shall have charge of the spiritual concerns and interests of the Church. They shall maintain its government and discipline, receive and dismiss members, administer the sacraments, and, subject to the direction of the Church, shall have control of its public worship and beneficence.

They shall study to promote its spiritual life, shall support the weak, and in general take loving and watchful heed over the flock. Five members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, two of whom, in the absence of the Pastor, must be elders. An appeal may be taken to the Church from any action of the committee, but after the statement of the case to the Church, at least one week must elapse before the final decision be made.

SEC. 2. THE PASTOR shall be a member of this Church, and its recognized leader and teacher in religious things. As such, he shall faithfully discharge those duties which properly appertain to his sacred office. He is also the executive officer of the Church, and shall moderate its meetings and those of its permanent boards and committees.

When a Pastor is to be chosen, the Prudential Committee shall call a joint meeting of the Church and Society for that purpose. Notice of the hour and object of the meeting shall be given from the pulpit the two Sundays preceding. All members of the Church and members of the Society of legal age shall be entitled to vote. In the induction of a Pastor into office, the counsel and co-operation of neighboring Churches shall be invited.

SEC. 3. THE ELDERS are particularly charged, in connection with the minister, with pastoral oversight. In his absence they shall see that pastoral duties are properly discharged. When the office is vacant, they shall nominate another Pastor to the Prudential Committee, who, if they approve the choice, shall call a joint meeting of the Church and Society to take action in the matter.

SEC. 4. THE DEACONS shall provide for the sacramental services; and are especially charged with the relief of the poor and needy in our Church and community.

SEC. 5. THE CLERK shall make a correct record of the proceedings of all business meetings of the Church and the Prudential Committee, and shall have the custody of all official books and papers belonging to them, subject to call. He shall keep a Church Register, containing names and residences of members, a record of baptisms, marriages, deaths, dismissals, etc., with dates. As Treasurer he shall hold the benevolent funds of the Church, subject to the instructions of the committee, under whose direction he shall perform all the duties usual to the offices he holds. At the annual meeting he shall submit to the Church written statistical reports, both as Clerk and as Treasurer.

ARTICLE V.—INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

Officers, before entering upon their duties, shall be publicly installed with prayer. Superintendents of Sunday-schools and the Clerk shall qualify as Deacons. Pastors, Elders and Deacons shall answer affirmatively to the following

INSTALLATION QUESTIONS.

1. Do you heartily accept as your own the confession known as the Apostles' Creed, and do you hold to that form of faith commonly called Evangelical?

2. In discharging the duties of the office to which you have been called in this Church, do you engage to abide by its Articles of Government, and to study its peace, purity and advancement; do you promise faithfully to maintain the truths of God's Word, and diligently to perform the duties of your office; endeavoring to adorn your profession of the Gospel by the purity and exemplary piety of your personal life?

At the Installation of a Pastor the following question shall be put to the congregation:

Do you, the people of this congregation, promise to give this man whom you have chosen as your Pastor, that encouragement and honor which are due him as a Minister of Jesus Christ; will you receive the word of truth from his lips in meekness and love; and will you continue to him such worldly maintenance as should be sufficient for his comfort?

When Elders or Deacons are installed, the following question shall be put to the members of the Church:

Do you, the members of this Church, receive as office-bearers in God's house, these men whom you have chosen; do you promise to uphold them and their associates in the discharge of their duties, submit to them in the due exercise of discipline, and encourage them in the godly service to which they are appointed?

ARTICLE VI.—MEMBERS.

The essential requirements of membership in this Church shall be a personal faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord, and an outward walk accordant with that profession. Persons desiring to unite with this Church, either by letter or on profession of faith, will make their desire known to any member of the Prudential Committee, who are charged with the duty of inquiring into their Christian history and present religious experience. When received, their names and residences (and if they came from a sister Church, the name of that Church) shall be duly announced to the congregation. At the earliest communion service possible after they are received, they shall publicly enter into covenant with the Church, in the manner prescribed in the following

Form for the Recognition of Members.

The Minister, after any introductory words he may deem expedient, shall first address

Those Received by Profession of Faith. Beloved: In now presenting yourselves to unite with this Church, you signify your agreement with us in the following articles of faith; You believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, as Son of God and the Saviour of men through repentance and faith; in the Holy Spirit, our Comforter, Sanctifier and Guide; and in the Sacred Scriptures as the revealed will of God to men, the rule of our faith and practice.

Believing it to be your duty to make public confession of your faith, you solemnly acknowledge the Lord God Omnipotent as your God and Father. You receive as your personal Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, who his own self bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live unto righteousness. You accept the Holy Spirit as your Guide and Sanctifier. Humbly renouncing your sins and yielding yourself unto God, you declare it to be your purpose by His help to regulate your conduct by the law of Christ, and to carry your religion into all the relations of life, thus adorning the doctrine of God, our Saviour, in all things.

The Minister will here administer baptism to those who have not received it. Then shall he say

To those Received by Letter. Beloved: You have heretofore made public profession of your love for the Lord Jesus, and your dependence upon His atoning grace for the pardon of sins and the life eternal. You do now solemnly renew your consecration to Him, and accept afresh the sweet obligations of His name and service.

To both Classes. In uniting with this Church you engage to submit to its government so long as you are members of it; to walk with your fellow disciples in charity, to attend the ordinances as you have opportunity, to contribute to the support and extension of the Gospel as God may prosper you, and in every suitable way, as members of this Church, to promote the advancement of His cause and kingdom. Do you thus consent and covenant?

COVENANT OF THE CHURCH. (All the members rising.) We, then, the members of this Church, welcome you to our fellowship in the blessings of the Gospel, and to our joy in the service of our divine Redeemer. We covenant to love and watch over each other with Christian fidelity, and to seek each other's advancement in the life and likeness of Him whose name we bear.

And now, dearly beloved, the Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you; the Lord lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace.

Now unto Him who is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God, our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever.—AMEN.

ARTICLE VII.—SACRAMENTS.

SECTION 1. The mode of baptism shall be according to the preference of the candidate. Infant baptism may be administered in connection with the communion service.

SEC. 2. The Lord's Supper will be celebrated the first Lord's Day of February, April, June, August, October and December. A preparatory service will be held on the Wednesday evening previous. The invitation to the Lord's Table shall include all who love the Lord Jesus Christ and desire to commune with us.

ARTICLE VIII.—DISCIPLINE.

All discipline shall be exercised in love, with constant regard to the highest good of the individual and the purity of the Church. The rule of procedure shall be that recorded in Matt. xviii, 15–17. If charges are preferred against any member of the Church, they shall be made in writing to the Prudential Committee, together with the names of witnesses; and a copy shall be furnished the accused. He shall have at least a week's notice after citation before trial, and shall be fully heard by the Committee. At least a week shall intervene between the hearing and the final action.

ARTICLE IX.—BUSINESS MEETINGS.

SECTION 1. The annual meeting shall be held on the first Wednesday evening after the first Sunday in December, at which time the annual reports shall be submitted, and the election of officers be held.

SEC. 2. Business meetings may be called by the Prudential Committee, or at the written request of five members of the Church. At such meetings business shall be confined to the subjects named in the call. Notice of all business meetings must be given from the pulpit at the morning service of the previous Lord's Day. Notice of a proposed change of these Articles, or of an election of officers, or of the annual meeting shall be given on the two Sundays next preceding the day of the proposed meeting.

ARTICLE X.—AMENDMENTS.

These Articles, or any of them, may be altered or amended by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, at any meeting regularly called for that purpose.

Constitution of the Ecclesiastical Society

ARTICLE I.—NAME AND MEMBERSHIP.

The name of this Society shall be THE KENWOOD EVANGELICAL CHURCH SOCIETY. All persons of legal age contributing to its support, and all persons of legal age members of the Church to be organized in connection with this Society, shall be entitled to vote at all its meetings.

ARTICLE II.—TRUSTEES AND THEIR DUTIES.

SECTION 1. The property of this Society shall be held in trust for the Society by a Board of seven Trustees, who shall also manage its pecuniary affairs according to the laws of the State. They shall be subject at all times to the directing vote of the Society, and shall have no power to buy, sell, mortgage or transfer real property without the specific authority of the Society therefor. No act of the Trustees shall be valid except when passed in open board at a meeting regularly called. The Board shall make an annual written report of its doings to the Society.

SEC. 2. Trustees shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Society for the term of three years. They shall be divided into three classes, one of which shall go out of office each year. A majority of the Trustees shall be members of the Kenwood Evangelical Church, and no person shall be eligible to the office of Trustee whose election would invert that proportion.

ARTICLE III.—TREASURER AND HIS DUTIES.

There shall be a Treasurer elected by the Board of Trustees at their annual meeting, and in case of a vacancy from any cause, the Trustees shall elect his successor at a special meeting of the Board called for that purpose. He shall receive all moneys belonging to the Society, and pay out the same only on the written order of the chairman of the Board of Trustees; and he shall make an annual report to the Society of his receipts and disbursements, duly audited, at the annual meetings.

ARTICLE IV.—CLERK.

There shall be a Clerk elected at the annual meeting of the Society, to keep a record of its proceedings.

ARTICLE V.—ANNUAL MEETING.

The first regular annual meeting of the Society, for the election of officers and transaction of appropriate business, shall be held the third Monday of December, 1886, at 7.30 P. M., and annually thereafter.

ARTICLE VI.—SPECIAL MEETINGS.

Notice of all meetings of the Society shall be given from the pulpit on the Sunday preceding the appointed time. Special meetings may be called by the Trustees, or by any ten members, such call being in writing, with not less than three days' notice.

ARTICLE VII.—QUORUM AND RULE AS TO DISPOSAL OF PROPERTY.

SECTION 1. Twenty members shall constitute a quorum, but no sale, mortgage, or transfer of property shall be made except at a meeting which has been notified on two preceding Sabbaths.

SEC. 2. But no action of the Society may alienate the property of the Society from the use and purposes of the Society, nor may the name be changed, except upon affirmative vote of not less than three-fourths (¾) of all the adult members of the Church and Society at the time of such action.

SEC. 3. Section two (2) of this article shall not be repealed except by an affirmative vote of three-fourths (¾) of all the adult members of the Church and Society at the time of such action.

ARTICLE VIII.—AMENDMENTS.

Any proposed alteration of these rules must be stated in the public notice of the meeting appointed for that purpose, but no amendment inconsistent with Sections 2 and 3 of Article VII shall be entertained.

Constitution of the Sunday-School

ARTICLE I.—NAME.

The name of this school shall be the SUNDAY-SCHOOL OF THE KENWOOD EVANGELICAL CHURCH.

ARTICLE II.—OFFICERS.

The officers shall consist of a Superintendent, an Assistant Superintendent, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Librarian, and such others as may be determined by vote of the teachers.

ARTICLE III.—ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

All officers shall be elected by ballot, a majority of votes cast being necessary to a choice. The term of office shall be for one year from the first Sunday in January, and until their successors are elected.

ARTICLE IV.—DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. The Superintendent shall be the executive officer of the school. He shall direct its management, conduct its exercises, appoint its teachers, and in general shall study its welfare and efficiency.

If any teacher is absent, without sufficient excuse, for more than three consecutive Sundays, it shall be his duty to provide another teacher for the class.

SEC. 2. The Assistant Superintendent shall aid the Superintendent in the discharge of his duties, and in his absence assume the management of the school.

SEC. 3. The Secretary shall keep a statistical register of the school and present a summary report of the same in writing, weekly and quarterly. He shall also keep a correct record of the minutes of all teacher's meetings, and have the custody of papers and records belonging to the school.

SEC. 4. The Treasurer shall hold all moneys belonging to the school and disburse the same in accordance with the vote of the teachers.

SEC. 5. The Librarian shall have general oversight of the library, and attend to the proper distribution and care of the books.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the Superintendent, Secretary, Treasurer and Librarian to present written reports for the year at the annual meeting. All officers shall be subject to the directing vote of the teachers.

ARTICLE V.—MEETINGS.

SECTION 1. Meetings for the study of the lesson may be held from time to time, as determined by the vote of the teachers.

SEC. 2. Business meetings of the teachers shall be called by the Superindendent quarterly. He may call special meetings at any time, and shall call such meeting at the request of any five teachers.

Notice of all business meetings shall be given during a regular session of the school. At these meetings the officers and teachers of the school shall be entitled to voice and vote.

SEC. 3. The annual meeting for the election of officers and the transaction of business shall take place the week preceding the annual meeting of the Church, at the call of the Superintendent.

ARTICLE VI.—QUORUM.

A quorum for the transaction of business shall consist of at least ten officers and teachers.

ARTICLE VII.—AMENDMENTS.

This Constitution may be altered or amended by a two-thirds vote of those present at any business meeting, provided at least ten days' notice be given of the change proposed.

Constitution of the Ladies' Society

ARTICLE I.—NAME AND OBJECT.

This organization shall be called the LADIES' SOCIETY OF THE KENWOOD EVANGELICAL CHURCH; its object is the advancement of all those interests in the Church for which the ladies may properly have a care.

ARTICLE II.—OFFICERS.

The officers of this Society shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer. They shall be elected by ballot, perform the duties usually incumbent upon their respective offices, and serve until the election of their successors.

ARTICLE III.—MEMBERSHIP.

The payment of an initiation fee, and thereafter of an annual due of one dollar, shall constitute any lady a member of this Society; and only members shall be allowed to vote.

ARTICLE IV.—COMMITTEES.

Any permanent department of the Society's work may be entrusted to a standing Committee, which shall have charge of whatever the Society undertakes in that department, and may suggest such plans concerning its prosecution as seem wise. The directors of these committees shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting; and with the officers of the Society shall constitute the Executive Committee, who shall consult for the general interests of the Society, and appoint the other members of the standing committees.

ARTICLE V.—MEETINGS.

From the third week in September until April, the Society shall hold meetings at such intervals as it may determine. All meetings shall be previously announced from the pulpit. The first meeting after the summer recess shall be the annual meeting, when the retiring Secretary, Treasurer and Directors of Standing Committees shall make reports for the year, and the President shall give an annual address, all of which shall be in writing.

ARTICLE VI.—MONEYS.

Money raised by the Home or Foreign Missionary Committees may be forwarded by them directly to its proper destination, but full report of the same shall be made quarterly to the Treasurer, and be entered upon her books. All other moneys collected by the Society or any of its committees, shall be held by the Treasurer, and be disbursed only by vote of the Society.

ARTICLE VII.—STANDING ORDERS.

Any permanent arrangements other than those prescribed by the Constitution shall be kept by the Secretary upon a separate page of the record book, for easy reference.

ARTICLE VIII.—AMENDMENTS.

This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any regular meeting, provided notice of the amendment proposed be given at the next previous regular meeting of the Society.

STANDING ORDERS.

1. The following shall be the usual order of business:

(1) Call to order.
(2) Devotional Exercises.
(3) Reading of Minutes.
(4) Report of the Treasurer.
(5) Reports of Committees.
(6) Unfinished Business.
(7) Miscellaneous Business.

2. The following shall be the list of Standing Committees: (1) On Foreign Missions. (2) On Home Missions. (3) On Benevolent Work. (4) Devotional Committee. (5) Social Committee.

3. The foreign and home mission Committees shall spread intelligence and awaken interest in that cause, and solicit offerings in behalf of it. The Committee on benevolent work shall have charge of all such work undertaken by the Society. The devotional Committee shall have oversight of devotional meetings other than those held in the especial interest of missions; and the social Committee shall meet and introduce strangers, promote friendly intercourse in the Church, and arrange for such social gatherings as are deemed advisable.

Form of Infant Baptism.

Moved by a sense of parental responsibility and by the persuasions of God's holy Word, you bring this child to receive the ordinance of baptism. In this ordinance you consecrate him to God, and present him to receive the seal of his covenanted grace, which, inworking with your faith, is able to make your child regenerate and an heir to the heavenly kingdom.

You recognize parental government and influence as one of the chief instruments through which God will bless your offspring. You therefore pledge yourself to fidelity in the discharge of this sacred trust, and will look to Him for daily supplies of strength and wisdom. You engage to instruct your child in the truths of God's Word and the principles of our Christian faith; to exercise over him a wise and loving government, and, yourself to set him an example of holy living; so leading him in the paths of truth and godliness. In dependence upon God's grace, do you thus covenant?

In your fidelity to this engagement our heavenly Father will not forget you nor yours. The covenant He made with the fathers, He will keep with the children. The seal of that covenant your little one is now privileged to receive.
